KA1BZE called the meeting to order at 7:05 with a pledge to the flag.

The club observed a moment of silence in memory of John, KB1TPG, he will be missed!

A Zoom presentation on the history and development was presented by given by Dom, N1DM and was enjoyed by all.

The secretary’s report was read; W2DAN moved to accept, N1KJS seconded, passed unanimously.

The Treasurer’s report was presented and accepted.

Communications: None

Repeater – The repeater is working well and is providing excellent coverage.

VE – John Perry, N1JOT, upgraded from Tech to General

RACES – Nets continue to go well and attendance has averaged 6-9

Events – Fox hunt coming up 10/23/21 and a POTA weekend event coincident with the Jamboree on the air and the NY QSO Party will be 10/16/21.

Old Business – KA1BZE brought up the idea of a club flea market but due to the complexity and expense of the event action was tabled

The idea of a Zoom “Night in my Shack” was discussed.

New Business – KA1BZE will look into the thought of tours and operating from the ships at battleship cove.

Liability insurance for the club from ARRL is available for $200/year if we decide to do club sponsored operating events.

N1KJS volunteered to head up and organize the nominating committee for 2022

W2DAN moved to adjourn at ~8:50 passed.

Respectfully submitted,
Skip Denault, KB1CNB, Secretary
